INDIANOLA - AJ Reuter tossed a four-hit shutout as Coe blanked Simpson, 3-0, in the first game of an Iowa Conference doubleheader in Indianola Friday.

The Kohawks took the second game, 9-2, to sweep the doubleheader.

The victories lifted Coe to 16-9 overall and 8-8 in the conference. Simpson fell to 6-17 overall and 2-10 in the league.

Reuter (2-1) struck out five batters and did not walk anyone in his shutout. The Kohawks got only four hits in the game themselves, but they pushed across two runs in the fifth inning and added another marker in the seventh. Michael Redmond scored two runs.

Michael Goerdts went 3-for-5 and drove in four runs for Coe in the nightcap. Craig Konrardy was 3-for-5 with two doubles and three runs scored. Cole Tomlinson had two hits and Alec Zwanziger scored two runs.

Connor Alberhasky (3-2) pitched eight strong innings for the Kohawks in the second game. He allowed two runs on five hits and had 10 strikeouts.
