

Prairie boys edge Washington by 44 pins

Written by Metro Sports Report
Friday, 30 January 2015 20:47 -

Matthew Gallaro posted a 245 game and a 449 series to lead the Prairie boys bowling team in a tight 2,946 to 2,902 win over Washington on Friday at Lancer Lanes.

Bryan Cline had a 249 game and a 431 series for the Warriors, who won the Baker round 990 to 976, but couldn't catch the Prairie Hawks.

Prairie (2,946): Matthew Gallaro 245-204=449, Nick Moffitt 198-189=387, Zach Zimmermann 181-183=364, Lucas Gallaro 188-158=346, Walker Hunt 150-194=344, Sawyer Hanson 212-212=424.

Washington (2,902): Bryan Cline 182-249=431, Chris Schuttloffel 235-184=419, John Taylor 160-216=376, Gabe Wedel 190-159=349, Zach Nading 139-198=337, Donovan Trimble 174-151=325.

Prairie: 1,970-976=2,946.

Washington: 1,912-990=2,902.