CASCADE - The Marion High School track teams captured three events at the Cascade Early Bird Co-Ed Meet on Thursday.

Mahila Brown won the shot put (39-7 1/4) and Haley Blazek claimed the discus (105-5) for the Marion girls.

Devin Quinn, Deshaun Quinn, Blair Brooks and Skylar Cook won the shuttle hurdle relay for the Marion boys (1:02.75).

Maddie Bach placed second in the 1500 and 3000 for the Indians. Kenzie Redmond was the runner-up in the 400. Breanna Smith placed third in the shot put and discus. Marion also placed third in the sprint medley.

The Marion boys collected second-place finishes from Hunter Reifschneider in the 800, Brooks in the 110 hurdles and Deshaun Quinn in the long jump. The Indians got third-place showings from Grant Meth in the 400, Jeremy Fopma in the 1600, Colton Forster in the 3200 and Brooks in the high jump.

The Indians also finished third in the 4x100 relay and 4x200 relay.
