SAN DIEGO - Cedar Rapids Prairie grad Scott Schebler socked a home run for the Los Angeles Dodgers in their 8-4 victory over San Diego Friday night at Petco Park in San Diego.

It was Schebler's first home run in the Major Leagues. It came against San Diego pitcher James Shields in the second inning. Schebler pulled the home run to right field.

Schebler played right field and hit seventh in the lineup Friday night. He went 2-for-5, raising his batting average in the big leagues to .333 in three games this season. He is 3-for-9 for the Dodgers.

Schebler did not play Saturday night when the Dodgers blanked the Padres, 2-0.
