

Prairie girls run 2nd in Newton

Written by Metro Sports Report
Thursday, 16 April 2015 23:01 -

NEWTON - The Cedar Rapids Prairie girls track team finished second at the Cardinal Invitational in Newton Thursday.

Hannah Frazee won the 1500 for Prairie (5:00.20) and Eilish Stanek claimed the 3000 (11:55.30). The Hawks also won the sprint medley (1;53.89).

Prairie got second-place showings from Paige Possehl in the 400 (1:03.76) and the 4x200 relay (1:47.84).

The Hawks had third-place finishes from Possehl in the 800 (2;32.13), Meghan Brune in the 3000 (12:13.80), Markquitta Soto in the shot put (37-6) and the shuttle hurdle relay (1:08.84).

Pella ran away with the title with 174 points. Prairie finished second out of 14 teams with 96.5 points.