BETTENDORF - Prairie won all four of its meets and claimed the title of the Royce Duncan Dual wrestling tournament Saturday at Pleasant Valley High School.

Prairie beat Machesney Park, Ill., Harlem in its first and closest meet, 32-29. The Hawks won four matches by one point. Andrew Netolicky's pin at 220 pounds sealed the victory. Zach Witte and Austin Gould had major decisions.

Prairie also beat Pleasant Valley (38-27), Moline, Ill. (61-15) and Oskaloosa (63-15).

Netolicky was 4-0 with three falls to lead the Hawks. Witte and Trey Blaha were 3-0. Blaha had a pair of pins.

Prairie's Skyler St. John lost his first match, then won his last three, all by fall. Austin Gould was 2-0 with a pair of forfeits.
