

Warriors sweep twinbill at Waterloo East

Written by Metro Sports Report

Wednesday, 10 July 2013 00:02 - Last Updated Wednesday, 10 July 2013 00:05

WATERLOO -- Cedar Rapids Washington scored 28 runs Tuesday and swept a Mississippi Valley Conference doubleheader at Waterloo East.

The Warriors won the first game, 8-5, and captured the nightcap, 20-6.

Johnny Dobbs had three hits and four RBIs in the first game for Washington (12-16, 10-12). Noah Dostal had two hits and an RBI.

Matt Troendle scattered four hits in six innings in the opener for the victory. Noah Burdt pitched the seventh inning and got the save.

Landen Akers and Burdt both had three hits and four RBIs for Washington in the second game. Lucas Matsuda collected three hits and three RBIs.

Mason Akers got the victory in Game 2 and Chris Harrington had a save.

Waterloo East fell to 2-32 overall and 1-21 in the conference.