The third-ranked Iowa City West Trojans swept a Mississippi Valley Conference doubleheader from the Cedar Rapids Washington Warriors, 7-5 and 11-2, Wednesday at Washington.

Noah Dostal, Noah Burdt and Johnny Dobbs had two hits in the first game for the Warriors (12-18, 10-14). Dostal and Dobbs had two RBIs.

Washington held a 3-0 lead heading into the sixth inning of the opener, but Iowa City West scored six runs to take command. The Trojans made it 7-3 in the top of the seventh and withstood a two-run rally by the Warriors in the bottom of the seventh.

Iowa City West had 10 stolen bases in the opener.

Matt Troendle collected two hits for Washington in the nightcap.
