

Good-Jones commits to ISU football

Written by Metro Sports Report

Saturday, 26 July 2014 09:16 - Last Updated Monday, 11 August 2014 19:25

Julian Good-Jones, a 6-foot-6, 270-pound offensive lineman from Cedar Rapids Washington, committed to the Iowa State Cyclones Friday, according to the Des Moines Register.

Good-Jones accepted a scholarship offer from ISU while touring the facilities in Ames.

Good-Jones was named second team all-Metro and second team all-Mississippi Valley Conference last season as a junior when Washington finished 6-4 and made the playoffs.

Bryce Meeker, an offensive lineman from Cedar Rapids Prairie, also has committed to Iowa State for the Class of 2015.