Frank Lindwall fired a 3-under-par 69 Monday at Hunters Ridge to share medalist honors and lead the Washington Warriors to the top prize at the Linn-Mar Invitational golf tournament.

Lindwall, entering his junior year at Washington, shared the medalist spot with Tripp Kinney of Waukee.

The Warriors finished with a four-man total of 297, edging Waukee by three strokes and topping Xavier by four shots.

Washington is 2-for-2 in major tournaments this season. The Warriors won the Mississippi Valley Conference Super Meet at Jones Park last Thursday.

Logan Bracey shot a 1-over 73 for Washington. Jabe Gonder had a 76 and Joe Slattery provided a 79.

Tyler Breitbach of Xavier finished in third place with a 1-under 71. Luke Winker of Xavier finished fourth with a 72.

Max Thrune of Linn-Mar, Griffin Clark of Prairie and Bracey tied for fifth place at 73. Jordan Weiss and Cameron Stump of Kennedy shared eighth place with 74s.
