The Cedar Rapids Washington girls tennis team began the 2015 season with a pair of lopsided victories in the Quad Cities.

The Warriors topped Bettendorf, 8-1, and blanked Davenport West, 9-0. Washington won the state title in 2014 and has another strong team this year.

Hannah Sherman of Washington rolled by Hannah Borgh, 6-0, 6-0, at No. 2 singles to lead the Warriors in their victory over Bettendorf.

Lilly Hartman defeated Tessa Daily, 6-0, 6-1, at No. 1 singles to pace the Warriors against Davenport West.
