Foreman wins 126 title at Cascade

Written by Metro Sports Report
Sunday, 17 January 2016 00:27 -

CASCADE - Will Foreman of Cedar Rapids Washington captured the 126-pound title at the Cascade Invitational wrestling tournament Saturday.

Foreman won by injury default in the championship round. He also collected a pin and major decision, raising his record to 21-1.

Logan Black-Marchard placed second at 145 pounds for the Warriors. Chris Karamitros (132) and Tyonchi Johnson (152) finished third for Washington.

Mount Vernon won the title with 246 points. Washington finished sixth out of 10 teams.

TEAM STANDINGS

1. Mount Vernon 246, 2. (tie) DeWitt Central 166, Maquoketa Valley 166, 4. Union 124.5, 5. Cascade 105, 6. Washington 102.5, 7. Dubuque Senior 102,
8. Midland 100, 9. Northeast 55, 10. Central City 18.