

Xavier boys edge Iowa City West

Written by Metro Sports Report
Tuesday, 25 November 2014 20:59 -

IOWA CITY - The Baker round was the difference as the Xavier boys bowling team beat Iowa City West, 2,881-2,843, Tuesday at Colonial Lanes in Iowa City.

The Trojans held a 1,912 to 1,905 lead after the first round, but the Saints pulled ahead 976 to 931 in the Baker round.

Caleb Miller led Xavier with a 457 series, while Patrick Wood led Iowa City West with a 491 series.

Xavier (2,881): Caleb Miller 246-211=457, Charlie Hart 163-235=398, Michael Buenzow 156-225=381, Cameron Zaugg 194-160=354, Jacob Fulton 176-139=315, Brett Young 133-179=312.

Iowa City West (2,843): Patrick Wood 224-267=491, Eric Vidhamali 224-233=457, Jared Donovan 185-199=384, Heath Schintler 138-167=305, Nick Rohm 139-136=276, Matt Bertell 136-133=269.

Xavier: 1,905-976=2,881.
Iowa City West: 1,912-931=2,843.