Erin Drahozal of Xavier High School has committed to play softball at Upper Iowa University.

Drahozal informed UIU Coach Amanda Bradberry of her decision Tuesday night.

Drahozal hit .492 with 11 home runs and 53 RBIs for the Saints this past season. She also excelled as a pitcher with a 19-4 record, 1.97 ERA and 86 strikeouts in 146 innings.

Drahozal was named first team all-state in Class 4A for the 2014 campaign when Xavier compiled a 33-7 record.

Drahozal has been playing varsity softball for the Saints since she was an eighth grader. She is a career .387 hitter (172 of 445) with 25 homers and 162 RBIs.

She has compiled a 65-23 record as a pitcher with 253 strikeouts.

Upper Iowa University finished 21-28 overall and 13-13 in the Northern Sun Conference last season. The Peacocks are an NCAA Division II college.
