

Xavier boys win 3 titles in Washington

Written by Metro Sports Report
Wednesday, 22 March 2017 04:43 -

WASHINGTON, Iowa - Ethan Brown, Josh Volk and Jax Junge won individual titles for the Xavier boys track team Tuesday at the Washington Relays in Washington, Iowa.

Brown edged Volk in the discus with a winning throw of 124 feet, 9 inches, with Volk finishing second by four inches.

Volk topped Brown for the shot put title with a heave of 47 feet, 5.25 inches. Brown was second at 44-8.25.

Junge claimed the 100 meter dash in 11.77 seconds. Teammate Kaiden Cuevas placed third in 11.99.

The Saints placed second in the 4x800 relay (8:37.13) and the 4x100 relay (45.94). The Saints finished third in the distance medley (4:02.74) and the 4x400 relay (3:39.46).

George Durin placed third in the 400 low hurdles (1:01.94).

Mount Pleasant won the team championship with 172 points. Xavier finished ninth out of 18 teams with 97 points.