Xavier tailback Brendan Miller officially rushed for 92 yards against Kennedy in the Class 4A playoffs Friday night and tied the school record for career rushing yards with 2,483.

Miller has matched Will Martin, who rushed for 2,483 yards in 2005 and 2006. Miller can break the record when the Saints play Bettendorf in the state semifinals Friday in the UNI-Dome.

The Metro Sports Report credited Miller with 93 yards on the ground against Kennedy, which would have broken Martin's career mark by one yard. The official statistics, kept by Xavier, had Miller with 92 yards.
