Freshman Molly Breitbach was the bright spot for host Xavier in an otherwise poor showing for the Saints at the Xavier Invitational.

Breitbach won the 100 meter dash, was a part of the winning 4x200 relay, and was on the sprint medley that took second Friday at Xavier.

"She's a hard worker, she will do whatever she is asked," Xavier Coach Russ Camacho said. "There is not much more you can ask from her."

As a team, the Saints struggled as their guests were more than willing to beat up on them all night. The Saints finished tied with Kennedy for last with 54 points.

"There were some highlights tonight and some things we need to work on," Camacho said.

Kennedy joined the Saints to represent the Metro area at the invitational. The Cougars also struggled to keep up with the competition.

Kristin Huebsch got the Cougars their only first place finish by winning the high jump with a mark of 4-feet-10.

Cedar Falls won with 171.5 points and Benton placed second with 106 points.

Xavier next runs Tuesday (April 5) at the GTR Women of Troy Relays at Iowa City West. Kennedy also is in the meet.
