Luke Hassman had a home run and three RBIs and Jamison Steege tossed a complete-game four-hitter as Kirkwood downed DMACC, 6-1, in the first game of a doubleheader on Sunday at Kirkwood.

The Eagles (12-8, 3-1) completed the sweep of No. 20 DMACC with a 5-2 victory behind three hits apiece from Ozzie Adams and Bryce Grimm.

In the opener Hassman had three hits, including his home run. Steege fanned four batters en route to his complete game.

Adams and Grimm led the offense in game two while Brock Neuhaus and Austin Clemens combined to stymie the DMACC bats.

Brandon Brittain drove home a pair of runs for the Eagles. Neuhaus pitched six innings, allowing two hits and two runs. Clemens earned the save, working three innings, allowing just one hit as Kirkwood took 3-of-4 in the weekend series.
