Jordan Bohannon's blazing start to the high school basketball season has him among the state's offensive leaders.

Bohannon, the Linn-Mar senior who has committed to the Iowa Hawkeyes, leads Class 4A players in 3-point goals (26) and is third in scoring average (23.3) He also is shooting 90.9 percent from the free-throw line (30 of 33).

Bohannon poured in 40 points with nine 3-point goals against Prairie Dec. 18, both Class 4A highs this season. His 195 career 3-pointers ranks No. 3 in Metro history behind his brother, Jason (230), and Prairie's Josh Kimm (205).

Washington's Laveechie Williams is enjoying a fine start to his senior season, leading the Metro area in rebounds per game (10.2) and ranking third in scoring (14.4).

A 9-1 start by the Kennedy girls has been sparked by the play of Lela Sellers and Sydney Hayden.
