SMYRNA, Tenn. - The Mount Mercy women's bowling team is headed to the ITC national tournament for the second time in three years.

Coach Andy Diercks and the Mustangs finished fourth out of 16 teams at the 2019 Intercollegiate Team Championships sectional qualifier Sunday with a total score of 12,010.

St. Ambrose won the sectional title, followed by Stephen F. Austin State, Indiana Tech and Mount Mercy.

The ITC national tournament will be held in Dayton, Ohio from April 17-20.

The Mount Mercy men finished 10th out of 18 teams in their sectional and did not qualify for nationals.
