

IWSL features inside-the-park homers

Written by Jim Ecker

Monday, 22 June 2020 06:10 -

WALKER - An inside-the-park home run is one of the most exciting plays in college softball as the batter races around the bases and beats the throw to the plate.

There were four of them Sunday in the Iowa Women's Softball League as Lindsey Culver, Haley McFarlane, Ceara Larson and Payton Akers all turned the trick at the spacious ballpark in Walker.

Emil's Hideaway and the Metro Sports Report split their doubleheader in the first two games, then Ironside Apparel and Bosch Financial did likewise in their twinbill.

Bosch Financial stayed in first place in the IWSL after three weeks of the season with a 4-1-1 record.

EMIL'S HIDEAWAY 3, METRO SPORTS REPORT 1

Emma Olejniczak of Iowa pitched four strong innings for Emil's Hideaway in their 3-1 victory over the Metro Sports Report in the opener.

Monday, 22 June 2020 06:10 -

2 / 2