Former Linn-Mar wrestling star Jay Borschel will be inducted into the Iowa High School Athletic Association Hall of Fame on Saturday, Feb. 21 at the state wrestling tournament in Des Moines.

Borschel is a member of an exclusive Hall of Fame class that features four wrestlers who were four-time state champs.

Mack Reiter of Gilbertville Don Bosco, C.J. Ettelson of Hudson, Daniel LeClerc of North Linn and Borschel were all four-time champs.

Former Davenport Assumption wrestling Coach Wade King also will be inducted into the IHSAA Hall of Fame. King spent two years as the wrestling coach at Cedar Rapids Washington and is still the football coach/athletic director at Assumption.

Borschel finished his prep career with 163-1 record from 2002 through 2005. He won state titles at 103 pounds, 125, 152 and 171.

Borschel was an NCAA champion at 174 pounds for the Iowa Hawkeyes in 2010. He is currently an assistant coach at Northwestern University.
