Scott Schebler of the Oklahoma City Dodgers has been named the Player of the Week in the Pacific Coast League through games of June 21.

Schebler, a Cedar Rapids Prairie grad, went 11-for-19 in six games last week and belted a walk-off homer in the bottom of the ninth in a victory over Memphis.

Schebler had a pair of three-hit games and collected a double, triple, home run, eight RBIs and three stolen bases during the week. He hit safely in all six games and has raised his batting average to .251.
