

J-Hawk girls bowlers crush Kennedy

Written by Metro Sports Report
Tuesday, 15 February 2011 20:32

Four Jefferson bowlers bowled 200-plus games and three broke the 400 series barrier, and the J-Hawks clobbered Kennedy, 2967-2629, Tuesday in a Mississippi Valley Conference girls bowling meet at May City Bowl.

Whitnie Jones rolled games of 237 and 211 for a 448 series that led the J-Hawks (12-3, 10-1 MVC). Allie Trcka fired a 243 for high game and had a 400 series. Jenna Alff also had a 400 series with a high game of 209. Courtney Moore rolled a 206.

Jefferson recorded its high score of the season in its regular season finale.

Caitlin Dicus had the line for Kennedy (14-5, 7-4). Amanda Weidemeier rolled a 201 and a team-high 366 series. Kennedy's score also was its highest of the season.

Both teams compete next in the Class 2A regional tournament Saturday. Jefferson is at May City, Kennedy is at Marshalltown.

KENNEDY (2629): Caitlin Dicus 205-357, Ashley Hoppe 168-335, Alecia McEachran 180-327, Amanda Weidemeier 201-366, Paige Ermer 178-327.

JEFFERSON (2967): Jenna Alff 209-400, Courtney Moore 206-394, Allie Trcka 243-400, Nicole Petersen 177-340, Whitnie Jones 237-448.

First round -- Jefferson 1982, Kennedy 1712. Baker round -- Jefferson 985, Kennedy 917.