Cam Wernentin's two-run single in the top of the eighth inning broke a scoreless tie and sent Bettendorf past Jefferson, 2-0, Tuesday night in nonconference baseball at the J-Hawk field.

Jefferson pitchers Dylan Wright and Clay Scott limited Bettendorf to four hits, but the J-Hawks (8-23) managed only five safeties.

Cam Frazier had two hits for Jefferson. Scott led off the bottom of the eighth with a double, but was stranded there.
