The first game was easy for the Jefferson J-Hawks and the second game was hard, but they both had happy endings.

The No. 5 J-Hawks won the opener, 10-0 in five innings, and captured the nightcap, 1-0, in eight innings.

Emily Walton, Hannah Towns and Liv Erickson had two hits in the opener. Walton drove in three runs. Towns and Erickson had two RBIs. Alyssa Olson (10-4) pitched a two-hitter with six strikeouts.

Maddie Hansen went 2-for-2 for Jefferson in the nightcap. Alissa Good (9-0) was the winning pitcher.

Jefferson raised its records to 21-4 overall and 13-3 in the Mississippi Valley Conference.
