WAVERLY - Megan Furnish of Cedar Rapids won her second straight Iowa Women's Amateur golf championship Wednesday at Centennial Oaks in Waverly.

Furnish and Christy Nelson of Central City finished the 54-hole tournament in a tie at 5-over-par 221, so they went to a sudden-death playoff.

Furnish sank a five-foot putt on the second playoff hole for a par and the victory.

Furnish, a Cedar Rapids Jefferson graduate, had steady rounds of 74, 74 and 73 in the tournament. She is a member of the women's golf team at Missouri State University.
