OLYMPIA FIELDS, Ill. -- Megan Furnish shot an 8-over par 80 Tuesday in the second round of the 63rd U.S. Girls Junior Championship at Olympia Fields Country Club.

Furnish finished stroke play at 15-over par. She missed making the match play portion of the event by five strokes.

Furnish played the back nine first on Tuesday and had three bogeys, a double-bogey and triple-bogey. She came back and played the front nine in even par, recording her only birdie to go along with seven pars and a bogey. She had played the back nine in 2-over par Monday when she shot a 79.

Ariya Jutanugarn of Thailand was low scorer in stroke play, finishing at 4-under par.

Furnish is a senior-to-be at Cedar Rapids Jefferson. Her next tournament is the 36th PGA Junior National Championship that will be held Aug. 2-5 at the Sycamore Hills Golf Club in Fort Wayne, Ind.
