

Wahawks rally past Prairie girls bowlers

Written by Metro Sports Report
Friday, 04 January 2013 20:14 -

Waterloo West overcame a 20-pin deficit and beat Prairie, 2772-2694, Friday in a Mississippi Valley Conference girls bowling match at Lancer Lanes.

Katlynn Palmer shot games of 204 and 223 for a 427 series that led Prairie. Rylee Blood was close behind, firing games of 201 and 217 for a 418 series.

Waterloo West's Makenzie Ruddy shot high series with a 441. She recorded games of 216 and 225. Alexis Wilson had a 401 series.

Prairie led by 20 pins after the first round. West outscored the Hawks, 910-806, in the Baker round to pull out the win.

WATERLOO WEST (2772): Makenzie Ruddy 216-225--441, Amber Ovel 186-167--353, Jordan Newman 150-170--320, Alexis Wilson 209-192--401, Jennifer Reynoza 150-180--330, Candace Newman 130-207--337

PRAIRIE (2694): Sabrina Keiper 151-178--329, Katlynn Palmer 204-223--427, Rylee Blood 201-217--418, Rebecca Kacena 126-119--245, Amber Westemeier 160-166--326, Hailey Tollefson 188-200--388

First round - Prairie 1882, West 1862. Baker round - West 910, Prairie 806.