

Palmer's 477 powers Prairie girls past Wash

Written by Metro Sports Report

Friday, 01 February 2013 18:40 - Last Updated Friday, 01 February 2013 18:42

Katlynn Palmer was red-hot for Prairie, rolling games of 244 and 233 for a 477 series that led the Hawks past Washington, 2695-2477, Friday afternoon at Lancer Lanes.

Amber Westemeier had a 215 game and Rylee Blood shot a 200 for Prairie.

Courtney Snodgrass led Washington with a 235 game and 404 series.

Prairie built a 159-pin lead in the first round.

PRAIRIE (2695): Sabrina Keiper 143-132=275, Katlynn Palmer 244-233=477, Rylee Blood 192-200=392, Kara Toczykowski 124-116=240, Amber Westemeier 159-215=375, Hailey Tollefson 142-178=325

WASHINGTON (2477): Kelly Waters 133-161=294, Keely Pernicka 192-157=349, Courtney Snodgrass 235-169=404, Ashley Duffy 133-145=278, Lynze Moon 179-161=340, Shania Christensen 130-167=297

Round one - Prairie 1843, Washington 1684
Baker round - Prairie 852, Washington 793