The Marshalltown at Prairie Class 4A substate semifinal baseball game Monday night was called after a nearly two-hour delay because of lightning and rain.

It will resume Tuesday at 7 p.m. with the Bobcats (17-24) leading 3-2 and Prairie (26-12) batting with two outs in the bottom of the third inning and a runner on first.

Marshalltown scored once in the second inning after two singles against Hawk starting pitcher Mitch Adams. They scored twice more in the third thanks to a triple to right field by Hunter Hillygus and a wild pitch.

The sixth-ranked Hawks scored once in the second on a two-out double to left by Blake Stallman. Tyler Mouglin scored in the third inning after walking, advancing to third on a wild pickoff throw to first and coming home on a ground-ball error.

The winner plays at 10th-ranked Xavier Wednesday at 7 p.m.
