IOWA CITY - Cedar Rapids Prairie senior Mitch Pritts raced to victory at the Iowa City West Invitational cross country meet Tuesday and led the Hawks to the team championship.

The Cedar Rapids Kennedy girls also had a good day and claimed first place in their race.

Pritts captured the 5K boys race in 16 minutes, 7.51 seconds. Mason Tope of Davenport Central finished second in 16:14.04.

Prairie showed its depth with Isaiah Vlasek running fourth, Tysen VanDraska fifth and Jake Moore seventh.

Alyssa Averhoff paced the Kennedy girls with a third-place finish in the 4K race. Allison Culver finished seventh for the Cougars and Lauren Meyer placed 10th.

The Xavier Saints finished sixth in the boys' race. Kennedy was seventh and Washington ninth. Sam Eck finished in eighth place for the Warriors.

Xavier finished seventh in the girls' race. Washington placed 11th. Shannon Gorman finished in fifth place for the Warriors.
