

Prairie surge bakes Cougars

Written by Metro Sports Report
Friday, 13 December 2013 20:11 -

Andrew Galloro had the ball rolling at Lancer Lanes Friday with a 428 series that helped Prairie eke out a 2746-2738 boys bowling win over Kennedy.

Prairie won the game in the final Baker round game. The Hawks rolled a 204 while Kennedy managed a 179, a 25-pin difference that allowed the Hawks to escape.

Prairie held a 32-pin lead after the first round.

Josh Kacena rolled a 401 series for the Hawks.

Doug Svoboda shot high series with a 434 for Kennedy. Andrew Galloro's 240 was high game.

Ross Grekoff had a 401 series for the Cougars.

KENNEDY (2738): Davis Sutton 179-193=372, Seth Nutt 148-141=289, Nicholaus Green 123-183=306, Ross Grekoff 200-201=401, Doug Svoboda 209-225=434, Aaron Smith 167-147=314

PRAIRIE (2746): Matt Galloro 177-172=349, Sawyer Hansen 145-171=316, Josh Kacena 200-201=401, Chase Montgomery 138-159=297, Walker Hunt 191-174=365, Andrew Galloro 240-188=428

Kennedy 1827+911=2738
Prairie 1859+887=2746