EPWORTH - The Cedar Rapids Prairie cross country team rested most of its top runners Thursday and still captured top honors at the Western Dubuque Invitational with a young squad.

The Hawks nipped Monticello, 56-60, for the title in the 17-team field.

Colton LaGrange finished third in 16:37 to lead Prairie. Elijah Vlasek finished sixth and Robert Laue was eighth.

The Prairie girls placed fourth in their race. Alissa Neubauer led the Hawks in 13th place.
