IOWA CITY - Halle Lueck collected 49 assists and 26 digs Tuesday night as Prairie tripped Iowa City West, 25-19, 24-26, 25-21, 25-19, in a Mississippi Valley Conference volleyball match in Iowa City.

The Hawks (15-20) used a balanced attack at the net with Megan Sprengeler getting 12 kills, Becca Bell 11, Kate Busswitz 11 and Malia Gudenkauf 11.

Gudenkauf went 15-for-15 on serves and Sara Stevenson was 14-for-14. Bell had four blocks for the Hawks. Busswitz and Lueck had three blocks.

Brenna Nehring contributed three ace serves.

"Prairie had a balanced offensive attack and played solid defense behind a great serving night," Coach Kevin Geary reported.
