Cedar Rapids Prairie sophomore Bryce Meeker has been invited to participate in the U.S. Army National Combine in San Antonio this January.

The combine will feature 500 of the top high school underclassmen from around the country.

Meeker is a 6-foot-5, 270-pound sophomore lineman at Prairie.

The combine will be held Jan. 5-7 at the Alamodome in San Antonio in conjunction with the U.S. Army National Bowl for graduating seniors. The Army Bowl selection committee will attend the combine to scout players for future games.

Meeker plans to take an unofficial visit to the University of Iowa this weekend and attend Iowa's game against Penn State. He plans to take an unofficial visit to the University of Nebraska next weekend and attend Nebraska's game against Michigan.
