The Xavier Saints made quick work of Waterloo East in their Mississippi Valley Conference doubleheader at Ken Charipar Field Friday.

The Saints swept the Trojans, 10-0 and 14-0, in a pair of lopsided baseball games that were stopped after 4 1/2 innings due to the mercy rule.

Xavier raised its records to 3-6 overall and 2-2 in the league. Waterloo East fell to 2-9 overall and 0-4 in the conference.

Bryce Schulte and Will Angstman had three hits for the Saints in the first game. Ryan Hosch pitched the first three innings for the victory, allowing two hits with five strikeouts.

Garrett Reis went 3-for-3 with two triples, a double and four RBIs in the second game. Angstman had two more hits and three RBIs.

Schulte had two hits and pitched three innings for the victory in Game 2. He allowed one hit with five strikeouts.
