Cedar Rapids Xavier High School junior John Ingwersen won the Rotary Pribyl Junior Golf Tournament on Friday by firing a final round of 73 at Elmcrest Country Club.

Ingwersen finished the 72-hole event at 73-76-78-73--300 to win the tournament by five shots over Matt Junge of Xavier.

The Saints placed five golfers in the top-10 as Ben Sagers finished fourth, Rob Thinnes seventh and John Drahozal ninth.

Kennedy golfers claimed three spots in the top 10 in the non-school event with Conner Koberg in third place, Cole Murdock fifth and Davis Sutton eighth.

Luke Winker of Xavier won the novice division at 162.

The tournament was held over four days at Gardner, the Cedar Rapids Country Club, Hunters Ridge and Elmcrest and was open to golfers in the Metro area. The open division was for golfers 15 to 17 years old.
