NORTH ENGLISH - The Cedar Valley Christian girls basketball team won its first game of the season Monday night with a 44-30 victory over English Valleys in North English.

Molly Hembera led the Huskies with 14 points and six rebounds. Candace Wilson contributed 12 points, six rebounds and four steals.

Emma Slagle had eight points and Maggie Cach grabbed six rebounds.

The Huskies used 11 players in the victory. "The 11 that played operated as one and all contributed to the win," said Coach Ron Slagle.

Cedar Valley raised its record to 1-5. English Valleys fell to 1-4.
