The Cedar Valley Christian high school baseball team has canceled games for the second time this week due to a lack of players.

The Huskies canceled Friday's doubleheader against Prince of Peace in Clinton due to a manpower shortage. They also canceled this past Tuesday's meeting with Bellevue Marquette for the same reason.

This is Cedar Valley's first season of baseball as a member of the Iowa High Schol Athletic Association (IHSAA).

The Huskies have been outscored 65-5 in four games, with lopsided losses in all four contests. They lost to Springville, 20-4, and fell to East Buchanan, 25-1, along with dropping a pair of 10-0 games.

Cedar Valley plans to play a doubleheader at Montezuma Saturday afternoon with 10 players. The Huskies have been battling injuries and other absences.
