Five members of the Kirkwood women's basketball team will continue their careers at four-year schools next season.

Awal Ajak is headed to Missouri-Kansas City, an NCAA Division I program. Three Eagles have signed with NCAA Division II schools with Tayana Wilson going to Limestone, Olivia Usher to Missouri Western and Christmas Puok to Texas-Permian Basin.

Niaja Taylor will be playing at William Penn, an NAIA school in Oskaloosa.

Kirkwood finished second at the NJCAA Division II national tournament this season with a 34-4 record.
