OVERLAND PARK, Kan. - The 12th-ranked Kirkwood volleyball team split its final two matches at the Johnson County tournament Saturday.

The Eagles lost to Johnson County, 25-23, 25-23, 25-23, in their first match and rebounded with a 3-1 victory over North Platte, 25-16, 19-25, 25-11, 25-22.

Ady Wintermote led Kirkwood with 15 kills against Johnson County and Margaret Micka had 11. Lauren Keane collected 26 assists. Brianna Eberhardt had 17 digs, Keane 16 and Micka 12. Haleigh Durnin blocked five shots.

Wintermote finished with 16 kills against North Platte and Micka had 15. Keane distributed 43 assists. Eberhardt had 25 digs, Micka 24, Keane 17 and Wintermote 16. McKenzie Petersen blocked eight shots.

Kirkwood finished with a 1-3 record in the tournament and saw its overall mark fall to 15-11.