

Peters fires ace for KCC golfers

Written by Metro Sports Report
Friday, 12 October 2018 23:05 -

PLYMOUTH, Ind. - Dawson Peters collected the first hole-in-one of his career Friday to help the Kirkwood Eagles make a strong showing at the NJCAA Division II National Preview at the Swan Lake Resort Black Course in Plymouth, Ind.

Peters fired his ace on the 16th hole, which measures 196 yards from tee to cup.

Parkland College took the lead in the 36-hole tournament with a team score of 2-over-par 290, but Kirkwood is just one shot behind at 291 heading into the final round Saturday.

Peters is tied for second place in the individual standings at 1-under 71, followed by three more Kirkwood golfers. James Morgan is fourth with an even-par 72, with George Kalpakas and Ryan Morrison tied for fifth place at 2-over 74.

Jalen Hodges of Parkland sits in first place at 2-under 70, just one stroke ahead of Peters.

TEAM STANDINGS

1. Parkland 290, 2. Kirkwood 291, 3. DMACC 311, 4. Mineral Area College 316.

KIRKWOOD - 2. Dawson Peters 71, 4. James Morgan 72, 5. George Kalpakas 74, 5. Ryan Morrison 74, 13. Sam Lockhart 78, 16. Will Babcock 79, 16. Ben Epperly 79.