

Kirkwood sets showcase for HS baseball

Written by Metro Sports Report
Monday, 18 November 2013 21:36 -

The Kirkwood Community College baseball program will hold an Indoor Showcase for high school players on Sunday, Dec. 1 at the Michael J. Gould Recreation Center on campus.

The showcase is for any high school player. The cost is $50 and pre-registration is required by calling (319) 398-1022 or 800-332-8833.

All players will be evaluated in a pro-style workout. Players should bring baseball pants or sweatpants, tennis shoes, T-shirt, glove, cap and a bat. Catchers should bring their gear.

For more information, contact Kirkwood assistant coach Ron Benich (ron.benich@kirkwood.edu u , 319-398-5596).

The check-in for the showcase is scheduled for 10:30 a.m., with the showcase beginning at 11 a.m.