

2 KCC softball players named All-American

Written by Metro Sports Report
Wednesday, 28 May 2014 10:07 -

Chasney Jenkins and Shy Saladino from the Kirkwood softball team have been named All-Americans by the National Junior College Athletic Association.

Jenkins, a freshman outfielder, led the Eagles with a .446 batting average and had 37 stolen bases.

Saladino, a sophomore pitcher, led Kirkwood in strikeouts, averaging 8.27 per game. She will continue her career at Missouri Western University.

The Eagles finished 52-8 this season.