SIOUX CITY — The seventh-ranked Kirkwood Community College softball team drubbed Iowa Lakes, 13-2 and 16-2, in an ICCAC conference doubleheader Friday on the road.

Both games lasted only five innings.

The Eagles are riding an 11-game winning streak, raising their records to 23-4 overall and 6-0 in the league.

Tara Walls went 4-for-5 with four RBIs in the first game and Brittney Lash had a double and three RBIs. Sam Belz pitched a complete game for the victory.

Lexi Quandt went 3-for-3 with five RBIs in the second game. Chasney Jenkins was 3-for-3 with three RBIs and three runs scored. Jenna Schulte was 2-for-2 with two RBIs. Shy Saladino tossed four innings for the victory.
