BOONE - The 19th-ranked Kirkwood Eagles collected only five hits Saturday and were trounced by DMACC in a conference doubleheader in Boone, 9-2 and 12-1.

Kirkwood went 5-for-50 in the twinbill for a futile batting average of .100. The Eagles (10-4, 0-2) got only three hits in the first game and two hits in the nightcap.

DMACC batters went 26-for-68 in the doubleheader for a lusty batting average of .382 in the two games.

Cale Henke and Brian Daphney were the starting pitchers for Kirkwood. Henke was touched for seven runs (three earned) in five innings in the opener. Daphney allowed seven runs (five earned) in just 1 2/3 innings in the second game.

Matt Paciello went 2-for-3 and Milton Croes had two RBIs for Kirkwood in the first game.

Kirkwood and DMACC are scheduled for another doubleheader in Boone Sunday afternoon.
