Darin Pint of Kirkwood has been honored as the NJCAA Division II national golf coach of the year and three of his players have been named junior college All-Americans.

Pint will receive the Dave Williams Award at the GCAA national convention Dec. 12.

Kirkwood finished second at the national tournament in Indiana last month and enjoyed a strong season from start to finish with seven titles.

Carson Whittington, who placed second at the national tournament, has been named a first team All-American. Charlie Hartwig, who placed 13th, has been selected as a second team All-American. Jordan Even, who tied for 24th, received honorable mention.
