

Kirkwood drops 2 matches in Illinois

Written by Metro Sports Report
Sunday, 25 September 2016 06:18 -

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. - The Kirkwood Eagles had a disappointing day at the Parkland volleyball tournament Saturday in Champaign, Ill.

The fourth-ranked Eagles lost a squeaker to Muskegon, 25-21, 12-25, 11-25, 25-21, 15-12, and also fell to fifth-ranked Owens in straight sets, 25-17, 25-11, 25-14.

The results snapped Kirkwood's 16-match winning streak and dropped the Eagles to 17-4 for the campaign.

Madsy Richards collected 21 kills against Muskegon. Margaret Micka had 10 kills, Alex Miner nine, Erica Armstrong eight and Morgan Grimm six. Caiti Peterson had 44 assists. Jenna Laxton finished with 22 digs. Armstrong blocked six shots. Richards and Grimm had five blocks.

Richards led Kirkwood with eight kills against Owens. Miner had six kills, Armstrong five and Micka four. Peterson had 21 assists. Laxton furnished 12 digs.