

Jordan Even joins Memphis golf team

Written by Metro Sports Report
Thursday, 03 August 2017 04:45 -

First Xavier. Then Kirkwood. Now Memphis.

That's the path taken by Jordan Even, who will continue his college golf career with the Memphis Tigers after spending two years at Kirkwood.

Even helped Kirkwood finish second at the NJCAA Division II national tournament as a freshman in 2016 and tied for medalist honors at the regional tournament that year.

This past year, the Xavier grad ranked in the top 50 in the NJCAA with a stroke average of 75.26 and won three tournaments.

The Memphis Tigers are an NCAA Division I team that competes in the American Athletic Conference.